LIBRARIES BOARD OF SA TOUR

One 20th September the Libraries Board of SA visited our library as part of their tour of libraries in the South East area. We hosted them for morning tea and had an invaluable opportunity to present what we do, what we are hoping to accomplish in the future and some of the challenges faced by our local library.

A recent competition was held for a double pass to the current movie ‘Tomorrow when the war began’. The lucky winner was Rachel Kielow. As this movie has a ‘M’ rating, a second double pass was donated by Mrs Murray for Junior School entrants. This was won by Jack Stolarski. Congratulations to all of the entrants, it was great to see so many interesting comments and eager, enthusiastic visitors to the library.

“Reading is awesome!”

“Coomandook School has the best books in the world and the best library teachers ever!”

- just two of the 300+ entries for the tickets.
