A lively story with irresistible illustrations, this book is a delight to share with very young children.

NON-FICTION

UNDERNEATH MY CLOTHES –

J. Ettles. When and who decided that we should be judged solely by size and appearance? Why do so many of us set our mood for the day when we stand on the bathroom scales? Why does weight loss and being thin so often equate to being successful and beautiful?

THE RAILWAY DOG – O. Parker. Set amidst South Australia's beautiful but isolated mid-north. 'The Railway Dog' tells the true story of Bob, a scruffy brown stray bought on impulse by a local railway man as a gift for his wife – setting in motion the beginnings of a legend.

ADULT FICTION

D. French. The Foreign Land of the Very Wealthy, otherwise known as Manhattan's Upper East Side, has its own rigid code of behaviour. It's a code strictly adhered to by the Wilder-Bingham family.

Fun – no thanks

Unruly behaviour - definitely not welcome

ROGUE LAWYER – J. Grisham

I'm not a typical lawyer. I don't maintain a pretty office filled with mahogany and leather. I don't belong to a big firm, prestigious or otherwise. I don't do good works through the bar association. I'm a lone gunman, a rogue who fights bad systems and hates injustice...

THE STRANGER – H.Coben

Adam Price has a lot to lose: a comfortable marriage to a beautiful woman, two wonderful sons, and all the trappings of the American Dream – a big house, a good job, a perfect life. But then he meets a stranger in a bar. And he learns a devastating secret about his wife.

MONTY & ME – L. Bennet

You might think that dogs can't understand us...but you'd be wrong. Apart from his obsession with cheese, Monty is actually a very clever animal. So when his beloved master is murdered, Monty decides to use his formidable nose to track down the killer.
