ADULT FICTION

THE FORGOTTEN SUMMER – C. Drinkwater.

During the renovations of Luke's study, Jane visited only once or twice. And now here she was, turning the lock in the door that led off from the pantry, bringing a gust of fresh air into his sealed world. Her heart was beating fast.

RAGGED ROSE – D. Court.

Rose Perkins will do anything to keep her beloved brother Billy from the gallows, even if it means risking her family's reputation by treading the boards in a seedy East End music hall.

SAGE'S EYES – V. Andrews.

Sixteen year old Sage is a lonely child, dreaming of hemlock and mysterious ancestors she knows nothing about. Her adoptive parents keep a close eye on her, studying her for warning signs of....something. But Sage has to admit that even she can't make sense of the strange things she sees and hears.

NUMBERED – A. Andrews.

Mathematician and many-time loser in love Poppy Devine believes in being prepared. So when she discovers she has breast cancer, all she has to do is dust off the carefully numbered bucket list she prepared years before with her best friend Julia.

FIRST RESPONSE – S. Leather.

'I think you might be in the wrong place', she said, pointing at the door. "This is a nursery school." 'I am sorry,' he said again, but louder this time. He took two steps towards her and grabbed her hand. She yelped. Before she could say anything he had clamped something metallic around her wrist.
